

Context

Maternal and neonatal mortality in Burkina Faso is very high: 343 deaths per 100,000 live births and 27 deaths per 1,000 live births respectively.

Training

A blended online and face-to face training offered by Enfants du Monde on health promotion in maternal and neonatal health, in Burkina Faso.

For whom?

For healthcare providers working in maternal and newborn health settings.

By whom?

Delivered by national experts from the University of Ouagadougou and the Ministry of Health, and at the local level by coaches from the Health Districts.

Training objectives

Contribute to improving the health of pregnant women and newborns by enhancing the quality of care and encouraging community participation.

How?

9 themes    50 modules of 10 minutes each    1 Final assessment

Where?

Certification

Certified by the African Institute of Public Health and the Ministry of Health of Burkina Faso.

In practice

Alternating long distance learning and face-to-face seminars

4 hours a week online for 3 months

+ 3 days face-to-face + 57 hours of personal work

Benefits

- Accelerates the transfer of knowledge and skills to a large number of healthcare providers
- Reduces training-related absences of healthcare providers from work
- Learning is adapted to healthcare provider's pace and schedule
- Encourages collaboration across all levels of the healthcare system
- Makes training content updates easy

Implementation

Technical information

- Hosted on a Moodle platform
- Designed with Storyline 360
- Downloadable on smartphone, tablet, computer for offline use

Created by:

Partners:

More information: Mouna Al Amine, programme manager, Enfants du Monde – mouna.al-amine@edm.ch